Chapter 1 by Jayde Avalon

Okay, for this challenge, make a single sentence somehow related to the previous or a continuation of the previous sentence fragment, if fragment it turns out to be, using as many numbers as you can to replace words. The real trick is that they have to be in order going by 1s, 2s, 3s, 5s, 10s...however you want, but there does need to be a pattern. Here are 2 examples:

I 1 2 climb an oak 3 be4...

I 1 2 climb an oak 3 be4 5.

/[followed by another sentence or fragment]/

I'll start.

"We 1 2 play a 3riffic game..."

Chapter 4 by Rix Quill

... or, the doctor said, I could have been bitten by a K9, 10 I'll need an injection.

So, I crawled to the hospital, all pathetic, and used the 11evator to get to he second floor to see Nurse Panda. She said, "I'll juth get your file which ith kept on the 12f."

I didn't know what she was saying but she took my blood and gave me an injection ...
